The place to learn Italian

The place to learn Italian is the Italian Cultural Institute (Istituto Italiano di Cultura), the official Italian government centre for the promotion of culture in London, one of 90 Institutes around the world offering a wide choice of Italian language classes.

Whether you are a beginner, intermediate or advanced, whether you want Italian for business or pleasure, we can help you perfect your language skills at a level that suits your needs, and times and days that suit your schedule.

You can also continue to fine-tune your language skills after class. You can keep up to date with Italian culture by taking advantage of exciting Institute events, such as films, plays, concerts, lectures, books and poetry readings, and exhibitions. To find out more about our cultural programme, just check our website www.icilondon.esteri.it, or subscribe to our newsletter.

Our students can also use our Library, with more than 25,000 volumes, plus periodicals and a large reference section.

Finally, our fabulous Caffè serves genuine Italian coffee and snacks.

All in a friendly, informal and lively atmosphere that is totally Italian!

Come discover the world of Italy at the Italian Cultural Institute, the place to learn Italian.

Our courses

We offer General Italian courses on all levels, week-day mornings, afternoons, evenings, and week-ends. In addition, there are morning intensive courses, even a semi-intensive course on Sundays. We can arrange private or group tuition, for individuals or companies. We also offer classes in conversation, and Special Interest Workshops including Art History, Cinema, Gastronomy, Literature, Opera and Song. For Intensive Courses, see page 12.

All our classes are conducted in Italian and provide training in all basic communication skills – listening, speaking, reading and writing – with a systematic study of grammar. Our teachers are university-qualified and native speakers. Our classrooms have video and audio equipment, as well as satellite links.

Our linguistic levels follow the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages, CEF, produced by the Council of Europe. This ensures uniformity and consistency of teaching in line with other language Institutions in London and across Europe.

We offer nine progressive levels: Elementary (A1.1, A1.2, A2), Intermediate (B1.1, B1.2, B2), and Advanced (C1.1, C1.2, C2). To enable Advanced students to keep up their Italian, there is also an additional level, C2+.

Terms last for 10 weeks, and you can choose courses of 30 or 40 hours. Content is the same for both, which means the 40 hour course allows you more time to digest, learn and practice the material. This is just one example of our flexible approach.

Your level

Whether you are new to the language, totally fluent, or anything in between, we can help. Because we provide courses on so many different levels, you can rest assured you will be in the class that best matches your abilities and goals.

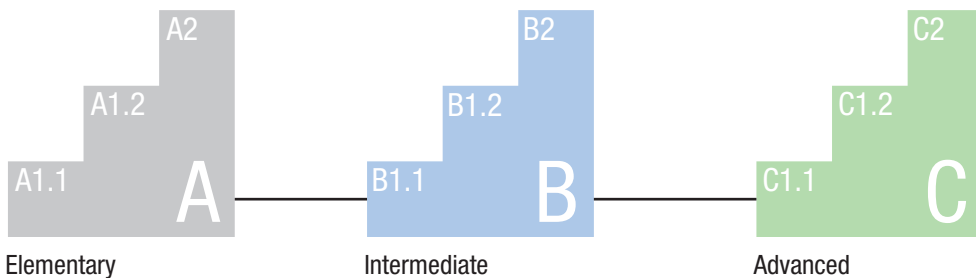

What's more, courses on every level are given every term, so you can start whenever it's most convenient, in January, April or September. We also offer summer courses starting in July.

Unless you are either a complete beginner or have studied at the Institute last term, a brief assessment test is compulsory to ensure we can meet your needs by placing you in the most appropriate class.

You can take an assessment test in person or online. Assessment tests are given between 2 and 4:30pm, Monday to Friday. If this is not convenient, please ring us during these hours on 020 7823 1887 and we can set up an appointment for you. For an online assessment test, go to www.icilondon.esteri.it

Of course, the time it takes to learn and perfect a foreign language varies from person to person. In addition to class attendance and time spent on homework, factors such as individual aptitude and the opportunity to practice with native speakers can make a difference. Our practical guide to linguistic levels explains what you can realistically expect.

Guide to linguistic levels, adapted from the Common European Framework

Elementary

A1.1 and A1.2

You can understand and use everyday expressions and simple phrases, can ask and answer basic questions and can interact if the other person speaks slowly and clearly.

A2

You can understand sentences and frequently used expressions relevant to topics such as personal and family information, shopping and local geography. You can exchange information simply and directly on familiar and routine matters.

Intermediate

B1.1 and B1.2

You can understand main points regularly encountered in work, school and leisure, and can deal with most situations likely to arise while travelling. You can offer simple connected text on familiar topics. You can describe and explain experiences and events, dreams, hopes and ambitions.

B2

You can follow the main ideas of complex text on both concrete and abstract topics, including technical discussions in your field of specialisation. You can interact with a degree of fluency and spontaneity with native speakers. You can produce clear, detailed text on a wide range of subjects and explain various viewpoints on topical issues.

Advanced

C1.1 and C1.2

You can understand a wide range of demanding texts and recognise implicit meaning. You can express yourself fluently and spontaneously, using language effectively for social, academic and professional purposes. You can produce clear, well-structured, detailed text on complex subjects.

C2

You can easily understand virtually everything heard or read. You can summarise information from different spoken and written sources, reconstructing arguments and accounts in a coherent presentation. You can express yourself very fluently and precisely, differentiating finer shades of meaning even in more complex situations.

C2+

In addition to these nine progressive levels, we also offer a level especially for Advanced students who want to keep up their Italian. The C2+ level focuses on contemporary culture rather than specific studies of grammar, exploring the language through literature, films, art, the press and more.

Workshops

To add an extra dimension to your Italian studies, we offer weekend and evening workshops that boost specific language areas, such as grammar and pronunciation.

Additionally, every term we turn the spotlight on a different Italian region, exploring its geography, food and wine, traditions, literature, music, art and more.
